ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 1 English — Descriptive Writing ✨

Name: Demo Grade 1 Date: 26/11/2026

Let's think it through together!

1. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The tall, red forest wagged its tail." or "The forest was there.". Write your answer.

2. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The warm, sweet garden curled up quietly." or "The garden was there.". Write your answer.

3. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The shiny, green rabbit had a bright door." or "The rabbit was there.". Write your answer.

4. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The tree was there." or "The ancient, tall tree fell loudly outside.". Write your answer.

5. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The dragon was there." or "The warm, sweet dragon glowed softly.". Write your answer.

6. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The mountain was there." or "The colourful, busy mountain smelled sweet.". Write your answer.

7. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The tall, red lion curled up quietly." or "The lion was there.". Write your answer.

8. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The owl was there." or "The colourful, busy owl glowed softly.". Write your answer.

9. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The fireworks was there." or "The delicate, blue fireworks wagged its tail.". Write your answer.

10. Which sentence describes it better? Choose one: "The rabbit was there." or "The sleepy, fluffy rabbit sang a happy song.". Write your answer.

You did it — great work!