ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 1 English — Reading Fluency ✨

Name: Demo Grade 1 Date: 26/11/2026

Let's think it through together!

1. Think about how this sentence should sound: "Who painted this picture?" Is it excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

2. Read this sentence: "Why do cats purr?" Should you read it in an excited, calm, or curious voice? Write excited, calm, or curious.

3. "The owl rests quietly at the bakery." — if you read this out loud, would your voice sound excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

4. "Where did the owl find the robot?" — if you read this out loud, would your voice sound excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

5. Read this sentence: "I like reading books." Should you read it in an excited, calm, or curious voice? Write excited, calm, or curious.

6. Think about how this sentence should sound: "Look, the lion found a flower!" Is it excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

7. Think about how this sentence should sound: "Look, the duck found a puzzle!" Is it excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

8. Think about how this sentence should sound: "Look at the size of that pumpkin!" Is it excited, calm, or curious? Write your answer.

9. Read this sentence: "How do bees make honey?" Should you read it in an excited, calm, or curious voice? Write excited, calm, or curious.

10. Read this sentence: "The old clock ticked slowly." Should you read it in an excited, calm, or curious voice? Write excited, calm, or curious.

You did it — great work!