Let's think it through together!

1. Write the missing high-frequency word: "I brush my teeth ____ morning."

2. Two sentences, two missing words. Write both, comma-separated: "I ____ wanted to say thank you." / "She ____ run very fast if she tried."

3. Write the missing high-frequency word in each sentence (separate your two answers with a comma): "I ____ the movie was going to be scary." / "We played ____ at lunchtime."

4. Write the missing high-frequency word: "It is ____ to wear a helmet on your bike."

5. Write the missing high-frequency word in each sentence (separate your two answers with a comma): "You ____ need an umbrella later today." / "I ____ believe you found my missing shoe."

6. Write the missing high-frequency word in each sentence (separate your two answers with a comma): "I brush my teeth ____ morning." / "The sunset looked ____ over the ocean."

7. Fill in the blank with the right high-frequency word: "My sister ____ a new bike for her birthday."

8. Write the missing high-frequency word in each sentence (separate your two answers with a comma): "We ride the bus to ____ every day." / "We are having a ____ dinner tonight."

9. Fill in the blank with the right high-frequency word: "I ____ walk to school with my brother."

10. Write the missing high-frequency word: "I gave the book back to ____ yesterday."

You did it — great work!
