ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 2 English — Speaking ✨

Name: Demo Grade 2 Date: 26/11/2026

Let's think it through together!

1. For each situation, should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice? (Separate your two answers with a comma.) 1) You are cheering at a basketball game and you need to say goodbye. 2) You are warning someone near a busy road and you need to share some news.

2. You are shouting encouragement to a swimmer from the pool stands. Should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice?

3. Imagine you are in a church during a prayer and you need to explain something quickly. Loud voice or quiet voice — which is right?

4. For each situation, should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice? (Separate your two answers with a comma.) 1) You are calling a friend who is far across the oval. 2) You are calling out across a busy market and you want to give someone directions.

5. Imagine you are sitting in an exam and asking to go to the toilet. Loud voice or quiet voice — which is right?

6. For each situation, should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice? (Separate your two answers with a comma.) 1) You are sitting next to a sleeping baby. 2) You are across a noisy playground and you need to explain something quickly.

7. You are cheering on a runner in a race. Should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice?

8. Imagine you are in a hospital waiting room and you need to tell a friend something. Loud voice or quiet voice — which is right?

9. You are sitting in a cinema during a movie and want to tell a friend something. Should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice?

10. For each situation, should you speak in a loud voice or a quiet voice? (Separate your two answers with a comma.) 1) You are in a quiet study room and you want to ask for help. 2) You are backstage during a performance and you want to say hello to someone.

You did it — great work!