ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 3 English — Paragraph & Editing ✨

Name: Demo Grade 3 Date: 26/11/2026

Let's think it through together!

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Learning a second language has many benefits. It helps you communicate with more people. It can also improve memory and problem-solving skills." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Learning a second language has many benefits." or "It can also improve memory and problem-solving skills."? 2) Read: "Dogs make wonderful family pets. They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners. Many dogs can even be trained to help around the house." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Dogs make wonderful family pets." or "They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners."?

2. Read the paragraph: "Bicycles are a great way to get around. They do not need fuel and produce no pollution. Riding also gives you good exercise." Which sentence is the topic sentence? Choose: "Riding also gives you good exercise." or "Bicycles are a great way to get around."

3

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Learning a second language has many benefits. It helps you communicate with more people. It can also improve memory and problem-solving skills." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Learning a second language has many benefits." or "It can also improve memory and problem-solving skills."? 2) Read: "Sharks are often misunderstood animals. Most species are not dangerous to humans. They play an important role in ocean ecosystems." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Sharks are often misunderstood animals." or "They play an important role in ocean ecosystems."?

4

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Dogs make wonderful family pets. They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners. Many dogs can even be trained to help around the house." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Dogs make wonderful family pets." or "They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners."? 2) Read: "Space travel is becoming more common. Private companies are now sending people into orbit. Scientists hope to send humans to Mars one day." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Space travel is becoming more common." or "Scientists hope to send humans to Mars one day."?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Chess is a game of strategy and patience. Players must think several moves ahead. It has been played for over a thousand years." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Chess is a game of strategy and patience." or "It has been played for over a thousand years."? 2) Read: "Ocean currents affect weather all around the world. They move warm and cold water between regions. Scientists study them to help predict storms." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Ocean currents affect weather all around the world." or "Scientists study them to help predict storms."?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The city's new library has become a popular meeting spot. It has quiet study rooms and a large children's section. Locals often meet there for book clubs." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "The city's new library has become a popular meeting spot." or "Locals often meet there for book clubs."? 2) Read: "Reading every night has many benefits. It improves vocabulary and helps children fall asleep more easily. It also sparks imagination and creativity." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Reading every night has many benefits." or "It also sparks imagination and creativity."?

7. Read the paragraph: "Dogs make wonderful family pets. They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners. Many dogs can even be trained to help around the house." Which sentence is the topic sentence? Choose: "They are loyal, playful, and love spending time with their owners." or "Dogs make wonderful family pets."

8

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The school camp was an unforgettable experience. Students went hiking, canoeing, and stargazing. Everyone made new friends along the way." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "The school camp was an unforgettable experience." or "Everyone made new friends along the way."? 2) Read: "Learning to cook is a useful life skill. It helps you eat healthier and save money. It can also be a fun and creative hobby." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Learning to cook is a useful life skill." or "It can also be a fun and creative hobby."?

9

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The school canteen introduced healthier menu options. Students can now choose salads and fruit. Many parents have praised the changes." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "The school canteen introduced healthier menu options." or "Many parents have praised the changes."? 2) Read: "Practising gratitude can improve your mood. Writing down things you are thankful for helps you focus on the positive. Many people keep a gratitude journal." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Practising gratitude can improve your mood." or "Many people keep a gratitude journal."?

10

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Sharks are often misunderstood animals. Most species are not dangerous to humans. They play an important role in ocean ecosystems." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "Sharks are often misunderstood animals." or "They play an important role in ocean ecosystems."? 2) Read: "The school canteen introduced healthier menu options. Students can now choose salads and fruit. Many parents have praised the changes." Which sentence is the topic sentence — "The school canteen introduced healthier menu options." or "Many parents have praised the changes."?

You did it — great work!