Let's think it through together!

📖 The Missing Reading Folder

Riya realised their reading folder was missing right before the last lesson of the day. Riya retraced every step of the morning, checking the classroom, the playground, and the hallway. Eventually, the groundskeeper found it under a bench near the oval and handed it back with a smile. Riya was relieved to have it back before packing up for home time, and promised to keep a closer eye on it from then on.
