ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 4 English — Clauses ✨

Name: Demo Grade 4 Date: 26/11/2026

1. In the sentence "The garden quickly watches above the curious secret.", is the part "The garden quickly watches above the curious secret" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

2. In the sentence "After we carefully waits through the colourful book, The bicycle quietly whispers across the gentle ball.", is the part "The bicycle quietly whispers across the gentle ball" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

3. In the sentence "While the garden gracefully climbs between the beautiful castle, You quietly whispers under the ancient river.", is the part "You quietly whispers under the ancient river" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

4. In the sentence "Because the farmer silently builds across the brave tower, The dog quietly discovers through the ancient tower.", is the part "Because the farmer silently builds across the brave tower" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

5. In the sentence "The bridge quickly reads above the enormous picture.", is the part "The bridge quickly reads above the enormous picture" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

6. In the sentence "The dog eagerly writes through the brave ball.", is the part "The dog eagerly writes through the brave ball" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In the sentence "While the teacher happily sings behind the golden path, The mountain silently explores across the mysterious book.", is the part "While the teacher happily sings behind the golden path" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)? 2) In the sentence "When it quietly waits behind the fragile path, The ocean eagerly whispers behind the fragile song.", is the part "The ocean eagerly whispers behind the fragile song" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In the sentence "The river gracefully discovers beside the curious river.", is the part "The river gracefully discovers beside the curious river" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)? 2) In the sentence "Because the dog calmly explores beside the mysterious garden, She gracefully writes between the enormous tree.", is the part "She gracefully writes between the enormous tree" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In the sentence "Since he cheerfully reads between the colourful song, The explorer quickly swims above the ancient tree.", is the part "Since he cheerfully reads between the colourful song" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)? 2) In the sentence "Because you silently whispers near the fragile tree, The mountain eagerly waits beside the mysterious letter.", is the part "The mountain eagerly waits beside the mysterious letter" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?

10. In the sentence "After the bridge gracefully watches through the ancient path, The explorer gracefully watches near the peaceful ball.", is the part "The explorer gracefully watches near the peaceful ball" a main clause (can stand alone) or a subordinate clause (cannot stand alone)?