ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 4 English — Plot ✨

Name: Demo Grade 4 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "Sam is chosen to give the farewell speech at the end of the year."?

2. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "The curse is broken and the kingdom celebrates the apprentice as a hero."?

3. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "Jack builds a makeshift raft to cross the rising water."?

4. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "She battles through pain to compete in the tournament's final event."?

5. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "The painting is recovered and returned safely to its place in the gallery."?

6. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "We meet Priya, a student who has always struggled with public speaking."?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "We meet a young athlete who dreams of representing her country one day."? 2) Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "She finds her way home and is welcomed back as the bravest sailor in town."?

8. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "We meet Priya, an inventor working on a new kind of bicycle."?

9. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "She must navigate through a narrow, rocky channel before her supplies run out."?

10. Which stage of the story does this event belong to (introduction, complication, climax, or resolution): "She confronts the thief in front of the whole school at the fair."?