ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 4 English — Point of View ✨

Name: Demo Grade 4 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The children are golden."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "You are brave."?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "She is golden."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The children are fragile."?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "They are ancient."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "My friend and I are silent."?

4. Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "It is colourful."?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "It is ancient."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The old man is ancient."?

6. Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "I am ancient."?

7. Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "They are ancient."?

8. Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "He is beautiful."?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The teacher is brave."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The old man is golden."?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "She is mysterious."? 2) Is this sentence written in first, second, or third person: "The old man is silent."?