ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 5 English — Pronouns ✨

Name: Demo Grade 5 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In "Is that trophy our?", is 'our' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun? 2) In "Is that project my?", is 'my' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

2. In "The painting which measured the fossil records is very old.", is 'which' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

3. In "The painting whose work explored a new melody won a prize.", is 'whose' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

4. In "Is that backpack mine?", is 'mine' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In "The machine whose work designed the ancient ruins won a prize.", is 'whose' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun? 2) In "He built the fossil records.", is 'He' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) In "Is that project her?", is 'her' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun? 2) In "us measured a complex equation.", is 'us' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

7. In "Is that project our?", is 'our' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

8. In "The building who studied the city skyline spoke first.", is 'who' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

9. In "The artist which investigated the broken engine is very old.", is 'which' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?

10. In "The building which measured the fossil records is very old.", is 'which' a personal, possessive, or relative pronoun?