ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Character Analysis ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young prince disguised himself as a commoner so he could learn what his people truly needed." What can we infer about this character? 2) Read: "Though she could have taken all the credit, the team captain insisted the whole squad be recognised for the win." What trait does this show?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Though he had every right to be angry, the shopkeeper forgave the boy who had broken his window." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "The young scientist repeated her experiment a dozen times, unwilling to publish results she was not certain of." What motivates this character?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The queen listened patiently to every villager's complaint, no matter how trivial it seemed." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "She volunteered to speak first during the debate, even though her hands trembled with nerves." What trait does this show?

4. Read: "The young chef kept experimenting with failed recipes for months, refusing to settle for an average dish." What motivates this character?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The queen listened patiently to every villager's complaint, no matter how trivial it seemed." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "Even after losing the election, the candidate congratulated her opponent warmly in front of the cameras." What trait does this show?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Even though nobody was watching, the young clerk returned the extra change the customer had accidentally overpaid." What trait does this show about the clerk? 2) Read: "The queen listened patiently to every villager's complaint, no matter how trivial it seemed." What trait does this show?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young diplomat kept calm and listened carefully even as the talks grew heated on both sides." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "Though exhausted from the long shift, the firefighter stayed behind to comfort the family who had lost their home." What trait does this show?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The general always listened to the counsel of his youngest officers, believing fresh perspectives strengthened his decisions." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "Even when the crowd booed, the referee stuck to the correct call without wavering." What trait does this show?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young chef kept experimenting with failed recipes for months, refusing to settle for an average dish." What motivates this character? 2) Read: "Though the storm raged outside, the captain calmly issued orders, never once raising his voice." What trait does this show about the captain?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Though exhausted from the long shift, the firefighter stayed behind to comfort the family who had lost their home." What trait does this show? 2) Read: "The librarian quietly set aside the rarest books for the one student who always asked thoughtful questions." What trait does this show about the librarian?