ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Discussion & Debate ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you dismiss an opinion just because it is different from yours? 2) Should a debater assume the audience already agrees with their position?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you interrupt someone to make your point in a debate? 2) What is it called when someone twists another person's argument to make it easier to attack?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a debater uses a scenario to show how an idea could play out in real life? 2) Should a debater repeat the same point many times instead of offering new evidence?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a speaker uses statistics to back up a claim? 2) What should every argument in a debate be supported by?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a debater responds to criticism with a joke instead of an answer? 2) What should you do before disagreeing, to make sure you understood the other person?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a speaker links their point back to the main debate topic? 2) Should a team divide up which points each speaker will cover before a debate?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should a debater ignore the time limit given for their speech? 2) What should you do at the end of a debate, regardless of who "won"?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should a debate team ignore likely objections rather than planning responses to them? 2) What is the name for a structured discussion where two sides argue opposing views?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should a speaker use absolute words like "always" or "never" when the evidence only shows "usually"? 2) What should you do before disagreeing, to make sure you understood the other person?

10 Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What should you do if you cannot think of evidence for your opinion? 2) Should you dismiss an opinion just because it is different from yours?