ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Media Literacy ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Can the same news event be reported very differently by different media outlets? 2) Should the same news story appear equally important on every channel or website?

2. Should social media influencers always be considered unbiased sources?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should social media influencers always be considered unbiased sources? 2) What is it called when a company uses children in advertising to appeal to parents' emotions?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What might a documentary's choice of background music during a scene suggest about how the filmmaker wants viewers to feel? 2) Should the same news story appear equally important on every channel or website?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What persuasive technique uses statistics or expert opinions to seem convincing? 2) What might a camera angle or music choice do in a film or news report?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a story is told from only one character's point of view in a film? 2) What might a camera angle or music choice do in a film or news report?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should a news thumbnail image always accurately represent the full story it links to? 2) What should you consider about who created a piece of media and why?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a news outlet reports a story mainly to generate strong reactions online? 2) What is it called when a media text is created to make you buy or want something?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should a viewer consider the time and place an old photo was taken before trusting a modern caption about it? 2) What is it called when a headline exaggerates a story to attract attention?

10

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is the intended audience of a piece of media, such as a children's cartoon? 2) Should a news thumbnail image always accurately represent the full story it links to?