ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Narrative Writing ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What should a writer avoid when ending a story too conveniently, like a character waking up from a dream? 2) What should the opening of a narrative do to hook the reader?

2. What is it called when a story's ending twists the reader's expectations unexpectedly?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a writer uses hints about how a story might end? 2) What should a writer avoid when ending a story too conveniently, like a character waking up from a dream?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What should a writer do to make an antagonist compelling rather than one-dimensional? 2) What is it called when an author gives clues about a character's personality through their surroundings or belongings?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a writer uses hints about how a story might end? 2) What is it called when characters speak to each other in a story?

6. What technique helps a reader understand a character's inner thoughts without a narrator explaining them directly?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should dialogue in a narrative sound natural, like real speech? 2) What is the purpose of a subplot in a longer narrative?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What technique helps a reader understand a character's inner thoughts without a narrator explaining them directly? 2) Should every character in a narrative need an equally detailed backstory?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is the purpose of a well-developed setting in a narrative? 2) What is it called when an author gives an early hint about a future event?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What technique builds tension by delaying information the reader wants to know? 2) What is it called when a narrative is told out of chronological order, e.g. starting near the end?