ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Perspective ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Government officials argued the funding cuts were necessary to balance the state budget." Whose perspective is represented here? 2) Read: "The parents argued that longer school holidays would give children valuable time to rest and explore." Whose perspective is represented here?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Farmers argued the new water restrictions would devastate crop yields and their livelihoods." Whose perspective is represented here? 2) Read: "Cyclists argued the new bike lanes were long overdue and essential for road safety." Whose perspective is represented here?

3. Read: "The government representatives argued that the longer school holidays would cause serious harm." Whose perspective is represented here?

4. Read: "The students representatives argued that the funding cuts would bring real benefits." Whose perspective is represented here?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "City planners argued the toll road would reduce congestion and fund future infrastructure." Whose perspective is represented here? 2) Read: "Stadium management argued night events were essential to keep ticket prices affordable for families." Whose perspective is represented here?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The company shareholders worried the pay increase would cut into their annual returns." Whose perspective is represented here? 2) Read: "Economists supporting the tax argued it would fund essential public services for everyone." Whose perspective is represented here?

7. Read: "The factory owner representatives argued that the uniform policy needed to be reconsidered completely." Whose perspective is represented here?

8. Read: "The environmental campaigners representatives argued that the new development would cause serious harm." Whose perspective is represented here?

9

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "League organisers argued the tighter schedule was necessary to fit the season into the available venues." Whose perspective is represented here? 2) Read: "Environmental campaigners argued the new regulations were essential to protect the river from pollution." Whose perspective is represented here?

10

Read: "The small business owners representatives argued that the longer school holidays needed to be reconsidered completely." Whose perspective is represented here?