ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Pronouns ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Read: "The researchers reviewed the proposal, but they were delayed by a technical issue." What does 'they' refer to?

2. Read: "The volunteers reviewed the budget, but they were delayed by a technical issue." What does 'they' refer to?

3. Read: "The architect finally finished the proposal, and he felt proud of the result." Who does 'he' refer to?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "When the judge addressed the lawyer, he seemed unconvinced by the argument." Who does 'he' most likely refer to? 2) Read: "Mia thanked Olivia because she had covered her shift at short notice." Who does 'she' most likely refer to?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Noah forgave Ethan because he had apologised sincerely for the mistake." Who does 'he' most likely refer to? 2) Read: "Emma thanked Grace because she had helped organise the entire event." Who does 'she' most likely refer to?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Maria handed the notebook to Priya because she had finished writing in it." Who does 'she' most likely refer to? 2) Read: "When the principal spoke to the teacher, he praised the new curriculum." Who does 'he' most likely refer to?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The chef prepared the dessert and served it to the guests." What does 'it' refer to? 2) Read: "When the teacher spoke to the student, she seemed pleased with the progress." Who does 'she' most likely refer to?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "When the manager spoke to the intern, she offered some helpful advice." Who does 'she' most likely refer to? 2) Read: "The explorers mapped the ruins, and they later published the findings." What does 'they' refer to?

9. Read: "The committee reviewed the new bridge, but it was delayed by a technical issue." What does 'it' refer to?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The engineers tested the bridge, and it passed every safety check." What does 'it' refer to? 2) Read: "The council approved the budget, but residents felt it was too small." What does 'it' refer to?