ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Text Structure ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To brew tea, boil water, add a tea bag, steep for three minutes, then remove the bag."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Our school should introduce a later start time because research shows teenagers need more sleep."?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To change a car tyre, first loosen the lug nuts, then jack up the vehicle before removing the wheel."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "The thief crept silently through the museum, careful not to trigger the ancient traps."?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Photosynthesis is the process by which plants convert sunlight into chemical energy."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "The thief crept silently through the museum, careful not to trigger the ancient traps."?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Our school should introduce a later start time because research shows teenagers need more sleep."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "The thief crept silently through the museum, careful not to trigger the ancient traps."?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "A young sailor set off across the ocean, dreaming of finding a lost island of gold."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To make a kite, attach the cross sticks, stretch the fabric over the frame, then tie on the tail."?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To brew tea, boil water, add a tea bag, steep for three minutes, then remove the bag."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To plant a tree, dig a hole twice as wide as the root ball, then backfill with soil and water thoroughly."?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Schools should ban junk food from vending machines to promote healthier eating habits among students."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "The old fisherman had sailed these waters for forty years, but nothing prepared him for what he saw that morning."?

8. Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Long ago, in a village by the sea, a curious fox woke to find the sky had changed colour."?

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "The respiratory system allows the body to take in oxygen and expel carbon dioxide."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To build a birdhouse, cut the wooden panels to size, glue the walls together, then attach the roof."?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "To make a kite, attach the cross sticks, stretch the fabric over the frame, then tie on the tail."? 2) Is this passage narrative, persuasive, informative, or explanatory: "Councils should fund more cycling paths because they reduce traffic and improve public health."?