ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 6 English — Themes ✨

Name: Demo Grade 6 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The explorer realised that the journey had changed her more than reaching the destination ever could." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The old man taught his grandson that true wealth was measured in kindness, not gold." What theme does this passage explore?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young girl learned that being different was not something to hide, but something to celebrate." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The old farmer refused to sell his land to developers, choosing tradition over an easy fortune." What theme does this passage explore?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The refugee family discovered that home is not a place, but the people you love." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "Though the twins looked identical, their different choices shaped completely different lives." What theme does this passage explore?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Even after being betrayed by his closest friend, the king chose to forgive rather than seek revenge." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The old sailor found peace only after finally telling the truth about the shipwreck he had hidden for decades." What theme does this passage explore?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "Even after being betrayed by his closest friend, the king chose to forgive rather than seek revenge." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The old man taught his grandson that true wealth was measured in kindness, not gold." What theme does this passage explore?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The refugee family discovered that home is not a place, but the people you love." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The king realised too late that true loyalty could not be bought with gold." What theme does this passage explore?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The king realised too late that true loyalty could not be bought with gold." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The twins spent years competing bitterly, only to realise their rivalry had cost them their friendship." What theme does this passage explore?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young girl learned that being different was not something to hide, but something to celebrate." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The young architect realised a building meant nothing if it displaced the very community it was built for." What theme does this passage explore?

9. Read: "The inventor's obsession with success led her to neglect everyone who once supported her." What theme does this passage explore?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Read: "The young architect realised a building meant nothing if it displaced the very community it was built for." What theme does this passage explore? 2) Read: "The soldiers on both sides of the war discovered they shared the same hopes and fears for their families." What theme does this passage explore?