ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Debate ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I respect that this matters to you, and I want to respond carefully" or "Why does this even matter to you so much" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I'll concede that point, but here's where we still disagree" or "You got lucky with that one argument"

2. Which is more respectful in a debate? "Let's focus on the argument, not on each other" or "You're impossible to talk to"

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "Let's agree on what we actually disagree about first" or "You're just trying to confuse everyone" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I hear your concern, and here's how I'd address it" or "That concern is laughable"

4. Which is more respectful in a debate? "I hear your concern, and here's how I'd address it" or "That concern is laughable"

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I'll concede that point, but here's where we still disagree" or "You got lucky with that one argument" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "Can we both agree to check that statistic before relying on it?" or "You clearly just believe whatever sounds good to you"

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I understand your point, but I see it differently because..." or "You're totally wrong" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I respect your view, though the statistics suggest otherwise" or "Clearly you haven't thought this through"

7. Which is more respectful in a debate? "I'd like to hear the evidence behind that claim" or "That claim is obviously made up"

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "Our disagreement might come down to different values here, not facts" or "You clearly don't share any of my values and that's your problem" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I respect your view, though the statistics suggest otherwise" or "Clearly you haven't thought this through"

9

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "The evidence suggests a different conclusion" or "That's a ridiculous thing to say" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "Can we look at a specific example to test this idea?" or "Examples won't help someone who refuses to listen"

10

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I see where you're coming from, but consider this..." or "You clearly have no idea what you're talking about" 2) Which is more respectful in a debate? "I disagree because the evidence shows..." or "That's a stupid idea"