ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Descriptive Writing ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "Dust rose in golden sheets behind the tractor as it crawled across the paddock" or "The tractor made dust as it moved" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The bakery's warm, buttery scent drifted onto the street at dawn" or "The bakery smelled nice"

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The orchard hummed with bees drunk on the scent of ripening plums" or "There were bees in the orchard" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "Rain hammered the tin roof like a thousand tiny drums" or "It was raining hard"

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The forest floor crackled with fallen leaves, smelling of damp earth and pine" or "The forest was nice" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "Mud sucked at her boots with every step across the flooded paddock" or "It was muddy and hard to walk"

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The library smelled of old paper and quiet, dust motes drifting through a shaft of light" or "The library was quiet and dusty" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The golden sunset melted into the horizon, painting the sky in flame" or "The sunset was pretty"

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "A single lamp flickered at the end of the tunnel, swallowed by echoing dark" or "The tunnel was dark with one light" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The engine coughed twice, shuddered, and finally caught with a low growl" or "The car started after a few tries"

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The stale, musty air of the attic clung to every dusty box" or "The attic smelled bad" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The engine coughed twice, shuddered, and finally caught with a low growl" or "The car started after a few tries"

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The subway rumbled beneath their feet like a sleeping giant turning over" or "The subway made a loud rumbling noise" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The orchard air hung thick with the sweet, sharp tang of fallen pears" or "The orchard smelled of fruit"

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The engine coughed twice, shuddered, and finally caught with a low growl" or "The car started after a few tries" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The subway rumbled beneath their feet like a sleeping giant turning over" or "The subway made a loud rumbling noise"

9. Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The crowd fell silent, a held breath stretching the seconds before the whistle blew" or "Everyone was quiet before the whistle"

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The market buzzed with shouting vendors and the sizzle of street food" or "The market was busy" 2) Which is more vivid, descriptive writing? "The campfire crackled and spat orange sparks into the velvet night sky" or "The campfire was burning"