ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Digital Literacy ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is it safe to assume an online review is genuine just because the account posting it has many followers? 2) Should you check an app's requested permissions, like access to your contacts or camera, before installing it?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you be cautious of an app that asks for far more permissions than it needs to function? 2) Is it wise to back up important files in more than one place?

3. Should you consider whether a website is trying to sell you something?

4. Which is more reliable for health claims? "a scientific journal article" or "a sponsored post with no disclosed sources"

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which is generally more reliable for research? ".edu" or "an anonymous forum post" 2) Which is generally more reliable for news? "a fact-checked news site" or "an unverified social media account"

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you check when a webpage was last updated before trusting its information? 2) Should you assume all information on social media is accurate?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you assume an account is real just because its profile picture looks genuine? 2) Should you be cautious of urgent messages pressuring you to click a link immediately?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you turn on two-factor authentication for your important accounts when it is offered? 2) Should you check when a webpage was last updated before trusting its information?

9. Is it safe to click links from unknown senders without checking them first?

10. Should you be cautious of an app that asks for far more permissions than it needs to function?