ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Listening ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you let a speaker finish an unpopular point before responding, even if you disagree early on? 2) Should you ask a clarifying question if you don't understand something?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you wait for a natural pause before asking your clarifying question? 2) Is it a sign of active listening to turn your body toward the person who is speaking?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you let a speaker finish an unpopular point before responding, even if you disagree early on? 2) Should you interrupt to disagree the moment you hear something you dislike?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you check your understanding by restating a complicated instruction back to the speaker? 2) Should you form your reply while the other person is still speaking?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is simply hearing sound the same thing as actively listening for its meaning? 2) Should you wait for a natural pause before asking your clarifying question?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you assume you understood an instruction if you are actually unsure? 2) Is making eye contact with a speaker a sign of active listening?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Is simply hearing sound the same thing as actively listening for its meaning? 2) Does listening carefully on a video call sometimes take extra effort compared to listening in person?

8. Should you let a speaker finish an unpopular point before responding, even if you disagree early on?

9. Should you interrupt to disagree the moment you hear something you dislike?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Should you form your reply while the other person is still speaking? 2) Should you assume you understood an instruction if you are actually unsure?