ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Persuasive Writing ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "distinguishing between what is proven and what is the writer's opinion" or "presenting opinion and proven fact as if they were the same thing" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using specific, concrete examples" or "using only vague generalisations"

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "connecting the argument to the reader's own interests" or "ignoring why the reader should care at all" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using a structure the reader can easily follow" or "jumping between ideas with no clear structure"

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using a confident, assertive tone throughout" or "using an uncertain, wavering tone" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "ending with a clear call to action" or "ending with no clear conclusion at all"

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using statistics and expert opinions" or "just repeating the same claim loudly" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "structuring the argument around the audience's priorities" or "structuring the argument around what is easiest to write"

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using a confident, assertive tone throughout" or "using an uncertain, wavering tone" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "explaining exactly what action the reader should take next" or "leaving the reader unsure what to do with the argument"

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "ending with a specific, actionable request" or "ending with a vague wish that something would change" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using credible sources to back up claims" or "making claims with no support at all"

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "building the argument from strongest to weakest point" or "listing points in random order" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "addressing the strongest counterargument directly" or "only addressing the weakest possible counterargument"

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "using statistics and expert opinions" or "just repeating the same claim loudly" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "defining key terms before using them" or "using key terms without ever explaining what they mean"

9. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "connecting the argument to the reader's own interests" or "ignoring why the reader should care at all" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "calmly refuting the opposing view with evidence" or "mocking the opposing view without addressing it"

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "defining key terms before using them" or "using key terms without ever explaining what they mean" 2) Which shows a stronger persuasive structure? "connecting the argument to the reader's own interests" or "ignoring why the reader should care at all"