ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Sentence Combining ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Combine these two sentences into one, starting with 'while': "The artist investigates the design." + "The scientist organises the report."

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "She studied all night." + "She still failed the test." 2) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The sky darkened." + "A storm was coming."

3. Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The sky darkened." + "A storm was coming."

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The twins review the proposal." + "The scientist repairs the experiment." 2) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The dog organises the experiment." + "The council explains the proposal."

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The scientist organises the report." + "The manager presents the new policy." 2) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "My teacher investigates the new policy." + "The players repair the painting."

6. Combine these two sentences into one, starting with 'because': "The chef studies the experiment." + "The engineers organise the design."

7. Combine these two sentences into one, starting with 'while': "The artist examines the painting." + "My teacher investigates the design."

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The power went out." + "We lit some candles." 2) Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "The alarm rang." + "Everyone left the building."

9. Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "He finished his chores." + "He could go outside."

10. Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "She studied all night." + "She still failed the test."