ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 7 English — Voice ✨

Name: Demo Grade 7 Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A narrator floats above the town, describing what is happening in five houses at once. What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator later admits she invented parts of the story to make herself look better. Is this narrator reliable?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story reads 'You glance over your shoulder, certain someone is following.' What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator says 'We knew the truth, but none of us would say it aloud.' What narrative voice is this?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) The story follows only the young apprentice's thoughts, calling him 'he' throughout. What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator later admits she invented parts of the story to make herself look better. Is this narrator reliable?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A detached narrator describes a battle from high above, seeing both armies' plans at once. What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator says 'I opened the door and gasped at what I saw.' What narrative voice is this?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A narrator says 'We knew the truth, but none of us would say it aloud.' What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator describes the secret fears of both the hero and the villain in the same chapter. What narrative voice is this?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A narrator turns out to have been hiding their own role in the crime the whole time. Is this narrator reliable? 2) A story instructs 'You push open the gate and feel the cold mist settle on your skin.' What narrative voice is this?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A narrator describes the thoughts and feelings of every character in the story. What narrative voice is this? 2) A calm, all-knowing narrator explains events happening in two different cities at once. What narrative voice is this?

8

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A calm, all-knowing narrator explains events happening in two different cities at once. What narrative voice is this? 2) The story is told entirely through one soldier's limited view of the battlefield. What narrative voice is this?

9

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A narrator floats above the town, describing what is happening in five houses at once. What narrative voice is this? 2) The story follows only the baker's thoughts, referring to her as 'she' on every page. What narrative voice is this?

10

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story reads 'You glance over your shoulder, certain someone is following.' What narrative voice is this? 2) A narrator floats above the town, describing what is happening in five houses at once. What narrative voice is this?