ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 8 English — Drama ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A hint planted early in a play that suggests what will happen later is called ____. 2) The main performer around whom the central conflict of a play revolves is called the ____.

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A long, uninterrupted speech given by one character to other characters present on stage (unlike a soliloquy, which is spoken alone) is called a ____. 2) A single continuous unit of action in a play, often set in one place and time, uninterrupted by a scene change, is called a ____.

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Performing without a prepared script, inventing dialogue and action on the spot, is called ____. 2) A play meant to make the audience laugh, usually with a happy ending, is called a ____.

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Smaller divisions within an act, often marking a change of location or time, are called ____. 2) A long, uninterrupted speech given by one character to other characters present on stage (unlike a soliloquy, which is spoken alone) is called a ____.

5

Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) In a playscript, instructions in italics or brackets that tell actors how to move or speak are called ____. 2) The emotional release an audience feels after a tragedy's dramatic tension resolves is called ____. 3) Smaller divisions within an act, often marking a change of location or time, are called ____.

6

Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) A play is traditionally divided into major sections called ____. 2) A long, uninterrupted speech given by one character to other characters present on stage (unlike a soliloquy, which is spoken alone) is called a ____. 3) The character who directly opposes the protagonist in a play is called the ____.

7

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) The words characters speak to each other in a play are called ____. 2) When the audience knows something a character on stage does not, creating tension, this is called ____.

8

A hint planted early in a play that suggests what will happen later is called ____.

9

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Music, lighting, and sound used to create atmosphere during a play are collectively part of its ____. 2) The list of characters and the actors playing them in a play's program is called the ____.

10 In a playscript, instructions in italics or brackets that tell actors how to move or speak are called ____.