ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 8 English — Editing for Punctuation ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Correct the punctuation in: "The meeting went well, however the budget wasnt approved." 2) Correct the punctuation in: "She asked "are you coming to the meeting" and I said yes." 3) Correct the punctuation in: "Whos bringing the decorations, you, me or jamie."

2. Correct the punctuation in: "The doctors advice was left on the desk."

3. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Correct the punctuation in: "She whispered "is anyone still awake" and nobody answered." 2) Correct the punctuation in: "Whos bringing the decorations, you, me or jamie." 3) Correct the punctuation in: "Whos coming to the party on friday, me, you or sam."

4. Correct the punctuation in: "Its certain that the meeting will run late, but the department won't change it's decision."

5. Correct the punctuation in: "Its possible that the results are wrong, but the company won't change it's decision."

6. Correct the punctuation in: "The managers decision was left on the desk."

7. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Correct the punctuation in: "She whispered "is anyone still awake" and nobody answered." 2) Correct the punctuation in: "The recipe needs the following ingredients flour sugar butter and eggs." 3) Correct the punctuation in: "Three things matter most, effort honesty and respect."

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Correct the punctuation in: "The museum which had been closed for renovations reopened to large crowds." 2) Correct the punctuation in: "She whispered "is anyone still awake" and nobody answered."

9. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Correct the punctuation in: "She whispered "is anyone still awake" and nobody answered." 2) Correct the punctuation in: "The report which took months to complete revealed several serious problems." 3) Correct the punctuation in: "Did she really say that was my favourite thing she's ever done."

10. Correct the punctuation in: "The meeting went well, however the budget wasnt approved."