ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 8 English — Fiction ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story following the episodic adventures of a likable rogue or anti-hero as he moves through society is an example of which genre? 2) A story featuring a perilous journey, exotic locations, and physical danger as its main draw is an example of which genre?

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story set in a future, oppressive society controlled by strict laws is an example of which genre? 2) A narrator who is a character in the story and uses 'I' is writing in which narrative voice?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story set in a future, oppressive society controlled by strict laws is an example of which genre? 2) A story following the episodic adventures of a likable rogue or anti-hero as he moves through society is an example of which genre?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story featuring magical events and enchanted creatures that ends in a traditional 'happily ever after', often aimed at a broad audience, is an example of which genre? 2) A story told from an animal's point of view, often used to comment on human society, is an example of which genre?

5. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) A detective story told in a cynical tone, often featuring a morally grey investigator in a corrupt city, is an example of which genre? 2) A short, simple story with animal characters that teaches a clear moral lesson is called a ____. 3) A narrator who can access the thoughts and feelings of every character in the story is using which narrative voice?

6. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) A story featuring a perilous journey, exotic locations, and physical danger as its main draw is an example of which genre? 2) A story told entirely through letters, diary entries, or documents is written in which form?

7. A story featuring magical events and enchanted creatures that ends in a traditional 'happily ever after', often aimed at a broad audience, is an example of which genre?

8. A fictional work based on real historical events or periods, blending fact with invented characters, is an example of which genre?

9

Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) A story involving magical worlds, mythical creatures, or supernatural powers is an example of which genre? 2) A narrator who only reports what can be seen and heard, without revealing any character's thoughts, is using which narrative voice? 3) A story following the episodic adventures of a likable rogue or anti-hero as he moves through society is an example of which genre?

10

Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) A story featuring a perilous journey, exotic locations, and physical danger as its main draw is an example of which genre? 2) A story following the episodic adventures of a likable rogue or anti-hero as he moves through society is an example of which genre? 3) A story told entirely through letters, diary entries, or documents is written in which form?