ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 8 English — Roots ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Using the root 'corp' (body) and this sentence — 'The committee decided to incorporate the new rules into the handbook' — what does 'incorporate' mean? 2) Using the root 'rupt' (to break) and this sentence — 'The power outage would interrupt the live broadcast' — what does 'interrupt' mean? 3) Using the root 'bene' (good/well) and this sentence — 'The benevolent landlord forgave the family's unpaid rent' — what does 'benevolent' mean?

2. Using the root 'rupt' (to break) and this sentence — 'The power outage would interrupt the live broadcast' — what does 'interrupt' mean?

3. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Using the root 'path' (feeling/suffering) and this sentence — 'Her empathy for the grieving family moved her to help' — what does 'empathy' mean? 2) Using the root 'vert' (to turn) and this sentence — 'The prank was designed to divert everyone's attention from the real plan' — what does 'divert' mean?

4. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Using the root 'sent'/'sens' (to feel) and this sentence — 'The sensor reacted to the faintest change in light' — what does 'sensor' relate to? 2) Using the root 'mit'/'miss' (to send) and this sentence — 'The teacher would not permit students to leave early' — what does 'permit' mean?

5. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Using the root 'aud' (to hear) and this sentence — 'Her whisper was barely audible over the roaring wind' — what does 'audible' mean? 2) Using the root 'cred' (believe) and this sentence — 'She stared at the magician, incredulous at what she had seen' — what does 'incredulous' mean?

6. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Using the root 'corp' (body) and this sentence — 'The committee decided to incorporate the new rules into the handbook' — what does 'incorporate' mean? 2) Using the root 'rupt' (to break) and this sentence — 'The power outage would interrupt the live broadcast' — what does 'interrupt' mean? 3) Using the root 'vis' (to see) and this sentence — 'The architect could envision the finished building long before construction began' — what does 'envision' mean?

7. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Using the root 'grad'/'gress' (to step) and this sentence — 'The disease will progress rapidly without treatment' — what does 'progress' mean? 2) Using the root 'firm' (fixed, strong) and this sentence — 'Old age often brings infirmity, making everyday tasks harder' — what does 'infirmity' mean?

8. Using the root 'ced'/'ceed' (to go/yield) and this sentence — 'The general refused to concede defeat' — what does 'concede' mean?

9. Answer all three (separate with commas). 1) Using the root 'grad'/'gress' (to step) and this sentence — 'The disease will progress rapidly without treatment' — what does 'progress' mean? 2) Using the root 'vis' (to see) and this sentence — 'The architect could envision the finished building long before construction began' — what does 'envision' mean? 3) Using the root 'tract' (pull/draw) and this sentence — 'The intractable dispute dragged on for years' — what does 'intractable' mean?

10. Using the root 'mit'/'miss' (to send) and this sentence — 'The teacher would not permit students to leave early' — what does 'permit' mean?