ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 8 English — Sentence Improvement ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "It is important to note that, generally speaking, most students tend to perform better when they get enough sleep." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "It was decided by the council that the new policy would be implemented due to the fact that costs had risen."

2. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The committee met on Tuesday. They discussed the budget. They made no final decision." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "She walked into the room. She was nervous. She sat down quietly."

3. Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / vary the opener): "The storm hit the city. It was fierce. It overwhelmed local roads."

4

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "In spite of the fact that the budget was limited, the team was still able to successfully complete the project on time." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The team practised every day. The team improved a lot. The team won the final."

5

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The rain started falling. It was heavy. The match was cancelled because of it." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The storm hit the coast. It was strong. It destroyed many homes."

6

Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The reason why the experiment failed was because the temperature was not controlled properly." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "The team practised every day. The team improved a lot. The team won the final."

7

Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / vary the opener): "The intern walked into the room. The intern was confident. The intern looked around slowly."

8. Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / vary the opener): "The cyclone hit the valley. It was fierce. It overwhelmed the power grid."

9. Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / vary the opener): "The intern walked into the classroom. The intern was hesitant. The intern walked to the front."

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "She walked into the room. She was nervous. She sat down quietly." 2) Rewrite this to improve it (combine choppy sentences / cut wordiness / vary the opener): "It was decided by the council that the new policy would be implemented due to the fact that costs had risen."