ZiloAcademy

✨ Grade 9 English — Analytical Writing ✨

Name: Demo Date: 26/11/2026

1. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What should the thesis statement in an analytical essay's introduction do? 2) What is it called when the conclusion restates the thesis in fresh wording rather than repeating it exactly?

2. What term describes a quote copied exactly from the text, used as evidence?

3. What is it called when a writer explains the significance of evidence in relation to the essay's argument?

4. What is it called when the conclusion restates the thesis in fresh wording rather than repeating it exactly?

5. What term describes examining a text closely, line by line, to draw out meaning?

6. What should the thesis statement in an analytical essay's introduction do?

7. What term describes a brief overview statement near the end of the introduction, outlining the essay's key points?

8. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a writer explains the significance of evidence in relation to the essay's argument? 2) What is a specific word, technique, or structural choice examined in an analytical paragraph called?

9. What should transition words between paragraphs help achieve in an analytical essay?

10. Answer both (separate your two answers with a comma). 1) What is it called when a writer explains the significance of evidence in relation to the essay's argument? 2) What should a writer do if their analysis of a quote doesn't fully support their topic sentence?